The Art & Writing Adventure

January 18 - 22, 2010
9:00 - 3:30

Artists Lynne Farrow and Lee Hodges, and writer Sharron Luft would like to invite you to join us for an exciting time of exploring our personal faith stories through word and image.

Sharron will guide us through exercises in putting our spiritual autobiographies into words.

Then we'll translate our words into images as we spend the week learning Lynne's transformational and Lee's acrylic collage processes.

These include creating meaning and metaphor through painting and stamping collage papers, exploring different stamp-making and embossing techniques, and experimenting with texture and layers. Each day's art-making will build on the prior day's activity so that at week end each person will have completed at least one 11 x 14 acrylic collage.

This intimate week-long workshop is limited to ten participants.

Cost - $250

Most art supplies are included in the workshop fee!

A very short list of suggested items to bring will be sent about ten days prior to the workshop

Your space is reserved when your registration form is received with full payment or a deposit of $100.
